

SANFORD DIEHL
Curriculum Vitae

NYU Department of Philosophy
5 Washington Place
New York, NY 10003 USA

sanforddiehl.com
sanforddiehl@nyu.edu

EMPLOYMENT

- 2023- Assistant Professor of Philosophy, New York University
- 2022-23 Visiting Assistant Professor of Philosophy, New York University
- 2021-22 Junior Research Fellow, Christ Church, University of Oxford

EDUCATION

- 2021 Harvard University, Ph.D., Philosophy
- 2013 Columbia University, B.A., Philosophy, summa cum laude, Honors in Philosophy
Concentration in German Literature and Cultural History

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

Normative Ethics, Moral Psychology, Social Philosophy, Political Philosophy

AREAS OF COMPETENCE

Post-Kantian European Philosophy, Metaethics, Applied Ethics, Epistemology

PUBLICATIONS

“Why Immanent Critique?” European Journal of Philosophy 30 (2022): 676-692

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

- 2020 Special Commendation for Extraordinary Teaching, Harvard University
- 2018-19 Graduate Fellowship, Edmond J. Safra Center for Ethics, Harvard University
- 2018 Francis Bowen Prize, Harvard University
- 2015-19 Derek Bok Center Certificate of Distinction in Teaching, Harvard University (4x)
- 2015 GSAS Summer Predissertation Fellowship, Harvard University
- 2013 Phi Beta Kappa, Columbia University
- 2013 James Gutman Prize in Philosophy, Columbia University

PRESENTATIONS (* = refereed)

- 2022 “Recognition as Actualization,” Interpersonal Relations Workshop, University of Birmingham*
- 2022 “Recognition as Actualization,” LMU-Zürich Early Career Conference on Relational Normativity, Universität Zürich*
- 2022 “Respect and Acknowledgment,” Workshop on Testimony and Knowledge of Other Minds, University of Warwick
- 2021 “Respect and Directed Obligation,” MANCEPT Workshop on the Ideal of Recognition in Contemporary Normative Theory, University of Manchester (online)*
- 2019 “Partiality and Being Loved,” Edmond J. Safra Center for Ethics, Harvard University
- 2017 “Why Immanent Critique?” Chicagoland Graduate Philosophy Conference, University of Illinois-Chicago*
- 2016 “Why Immanent Critique?” Workshop on European Philosophy, Harvard University
- 2014 “Hegel and Natural Teleology in Dewey’s Later Thought,” Virginia Tech Graduate Philosophy Conference, Virginia Tech*

COMMENTS

- 2019 on Julia Markovits, “The Partial Relativism of Praise and Blame,” Workshop on Rights and Supererogation, MIT
- 2019 on Sungho Kimlee, “Self-Cultivation in Early Confucianism,” Edmond J. Safra Center for Ethics Faculty Seminar, Harvard University
- 2018 on Sean Aas, “Before Year Zero: Political Philosophy and the Prehistory of Disability,” Workshop in Social Philosophy, Princeton University*
- 2017 on Max Lewis, “The Goldilocks Dilemma for Pessimists about Moral Deference,” Harvard-MIT Graduate Philosophy Conference, Harvard University

TEACHING

At NYU:

- 2022 Ethics, Fall (undergraduate lecture)

At Harvard (as primary instructor):

- 2020 Contractualism, Spring (undergraduate seminar)
- 2019 Big Data, Ethics, and Moral Machines, Summer, Harvard Pre-College Program (two-week summer course for high school students)
- 2017 Moral Epistemology, Fall (undergraduate seminar)

SERVICE AND PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- 2019      Organizer, Harvard Prospective Students Visit
- 2018-19   Harvard Philosophy Graduate Student Representative
- 2018      Member, Harvard Departmental Climate Committee
- 2018      Participant, Critical Theory Summer School, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin
- 2014-18   Organizer, Harvard Philosophy Talk-Shop Series